New Additions to the Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park Museum

Happy #MuseumMonday! For our first post in the New Year, we have something special for all of you artifact lovers. Kennesaw Mountain NBP just added to its museum collection!

Due to the generosity of an anonymous donor, Kennesaw Mountain received some personal items of John A. Freemole. The collection includes a small personal Bible, a letter to his wife Mary, and what looks to be a lock of hair. John Freemole was a soldier in the 86th Illinois Regiment, 3rd Brigade, 2nd Division, 14th Corps Army Corps, Co. F. While fighting at Kennesaw Mountain, John wrote a donated letter to Mary on June 23rd, 1864.

While James' fate is unknown, the 86th Illinois saw some of the heaviest fighting at the Battle of Kennesaw Mountain. This regiment was part of the main frontal assault at Cheatham Hill, and one of the groups entrenched on the 'Dead Angle' itself. In the letter to Mary on the 23rd, he writes about the heavy artillery fire on the 22nd to 'soften' the Confederate lines before the assault a few days later "...the rebs have the hill fortified in front of us... A continued cannonading all day kept them behind those works all day. We slept that night..."

The Illinois Adjutant's Report states that the regiments suffered a total of 26 killed, 60 wounded and 12 missing during the attack on the 27th. Before they moved from their position on July 2nd, they would suffer another killed and 7 wounded.

[Edit] There were several different sources that stated the soldiers name as Freemole and also as Freemold. Because of the confusion, the park was unsure of his fate. Since the writing of this post, we have learned that he was in fact killed in action on 6/27/1864 at the Battle of Kennesaw Mountain. ### John Ward Creek Crossing Closed to Horseback Riders

Kennesaw, GA – Effective immediately, the John Ward Creek crossing just south of the Illinois Monument is closed to horseback riders until further notice. This closure stems from a safety concern due to hazardous conditions relating to an unstable streambed. The closure affects the creek crossing between Milepost 3.5 and Milepost 4 of the Kolb’s Farm East Trail.

Superintendent Patrick Gamman states, “We are concerned for the safety of all park users. Crossing John Ward Creek at this section of the trail poses a risk that we want to alert our horse community to, as it could potentially cause harm to both horse and rider. We will be working as quickly as possible to mitigate this problem.”

Please contact the park at 770-427-4686 or visit the park’s website at www.nps.gov/kemo for further information.

February 4th, @11 am – Pigeon Hill History Hike

February 10th, @ 11 am – Mountain Top Hike

This ranger - led hike will take you roughly 1 mile up to the peak of Big Kennesaw Mountain. The hike is semi-strenuous so bring water and good shoes!

February 11th, @11 am – Pickett Line Walk

The Battle of Kennesaw Mountain was a large scale offensive with many moving parts. One of the first actions of that day was a diversionary attack at the base of Kennesaw Mountain itself and part of the way up the slope. Join one of our rangers for a short walk along this line of battle as they detail the techniques, tactics, and aftermath of this fateful assault. This walk includes rolling, rocky terrain and is approximately 1.3 mile long.

February 18th, @11 am– Cheatham Hill History Walk

On June 27th, 1864, nearly 9,000 Union soldiers made a historic charge into what they believed would be death or capture. Follow in the footsteps of these brave men as this easy ranger - guided tour explores the heaviest area of fighting during the battle.

*The hike will begin at the parking lot for the Illinois Monument, at the end of Cheatham Hill Drive.

February 24th, @ 11 am – Assault Trail Hike

*The hike will begin at the Activity Area 3 parking lot and end at the Illinois Monument.

February 25th, @11 am– Life of a Soldier Gear Layout

Join us as we lay out the gear that made such intense campaigning possible. You will see period-correct uniforms, weaponry and even get up close and personal with artifacts from the Battle of Kennesaw Mountain!

A Fairy Tale!

5/23/73

Fred Feltmann

Davenport, Iowa

Based on a print by Walter Firlie entitled "A Fairy Tale!"

A Child.

Another.

And another!

Gathered around.

The eldest, reading aloud, slowly.

The youngest, eyes ablaze,
crowding her shoulder and listening.

The other: entranced, reading along, listening.

All gathered.

On the old living room sofa.

It, pushing them together.

They, on the very edge.

Did it squeak, or was that a screech?

And the tale continues, to it's inevitable end.

EARTHWORKS

January 13, 2024 Workday

Because of the extremely cold weather predicted the workday was cancelled for high school students on Wednesday, January 12. Any adult that wanted to attend was told to meet at the tool shed to get tools.

We had 6 crew leaders for the workday. The Crew Leaders were Bill, Donald, Eric, Mark, Tom, and Mike. We had 1 Ambassador, Shelly, working as a volunteer and 1 volunteer from the Atlanta Outdoor Club.

We met at the tool shed to get tools. From there we drove over to the Pigeon Hill Parking Lot.

The temperature was cold. However, as we carried the tools from the parking lot to the worksite, we warmed up quickly. The first thing we discovered was how well the trail had weathered the inclement weather. According to my rain gauge we have had somewhere between 5 and 6 inches of rain since January 1st.

We started on the south side of Burnt Hickory Road. We eliminated the social trail and created two berms. We then removed leaves to improve water flow by the 36" conduits. Based on how water was flowing at the next work location, the area did not require a berm. At the next work location, we removed leaves to improve water flow by the 24" conduits. Once again, based on how water was flowing, we did not require a berm. The next 3 work locations were on the north side of Burnt Hickory Road. No drainage issues were found on any of these lines; thus, nothing was done.

The work done by all those involved in building this trail last year was exceptional. This work has resulted in a trail that is weathering both the rain and hikers extremely well.

The temperature never did get above 36 degrees. Thus, at no point did the temperature get to the 45 degrees required for high school kids.

Parking will be at the Pigeon Hill parking lot (at the corner of Burnt Hickory and Old Mountain Rd. Registration will open at 8:30 am.
