Kennesaw Mountain News Release

Release Date: Immediately

Temporary Closure of Parking Lots within Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park

Kennesaw, GA– During the week of February 14, specific parking lots and roads within Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park will be improved by crack-sealing the asphalt. Preserving roads and parking areas are critical in maintaining park access and visitor enjoyment. On these given dates below, parking lots or roads will be closed for a minimal amount of time while work is occurring.

Wednesday, February 14: The Visitor Center Parking Lot will be crack-sealed. The Visitor Center parking lot will be closed while work is occurring. Visitors wishing to use this parking lot will be directed to the overflow parking lot off Old 41, approximately ¼ mile from the Visitor Center. It is estimated this work will be completed by noon. The Visitor Center parking lot will reopen upon work completion.

Thursday, February 15: The mountain top parking lot will be crack-sealed, as will Kennesaw Mountain Drive. The Mountain Road will be closed all day.

Friday, February 16: Old 41 Parking Lot, Burnt Hickory Parking Lot, and the Illinois Monument Parking Lot (957 Cheatham Hill Drive) will be crack-sealed. The Old 41 Parking Lot, the Burnt Hickory Parking Lot and the Illinois Monument Parking Lot will each be closed while work is occurring. The lots will reopen upon work completion.
